Dear Dr. Launage:

I do hope that you haven't decided that I have forgotten you. As I promised you, I wrote to Fred's boss to get some information. As usual, they are slow in their answer but it should not be too long before I hear from them. I will let you know as soon as I get some word. I hope that your trip back to Lancaster went along smoothly and that you were not too tired when you arrived home. My best regards to you and the children.

Sincerely,
